

Need health insurance?

Many people can enroll now

Many people can get coverage through Maryland Health Connection, Maryland's official health insurance marketplace, any time of year.

1

Have you recently experienced a major life event?

Some changes in your income or household mean you can enroll or change plans.

Getting married or divorced

Moving to Maryland, or some moves within Maryland

Becoming pregnant or having/adopting a baby

Losing existing health coverage

Turning 26 and moving off of your parent's insurance plan

Certain changes in income, if you're already enrolled

Even if you already have coverage through Maryland Health Connection, it's important to tell us about changes so you receive the right coverage and financial help.

You can enroll in Medicaid year-round if you qualify, even if you haven't experienced a major life change.

Get ready to apply

If you think you may qualify to enroll now, have these items on hand:

- Birth dates for each household member applying for coverage
- Social Security numbers or document numbers for each household member applying for coverage, if they have an SSN or other document number
- Employer and income information for everyone in your household (including pay stubs, W-2 forms or tax forms)
- Citizenship or immigration information for anyone applying for coverage
- Information about any job-related health insurance available to your household
- Photo ID, if you're applying in person

We use the information you provide in your health coverage application only to determine your eligibility for tax credits and health coverage through Maryland Health Connection.
